

MASTERY OF LIFE

The most beautiful and most profound experience is the sensation of the mystical. It is the sower of all true science. He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer wonder and stand rapt in awe, is as good as dead.

To know that what is impenetrable to us really exists, manifesting itself as the highest wisdom and the most radiant beauty which our dull faculties can comprehend only in their primitive forms ~ this knowledge, this feeling is at the centre of true religiousness.

Albert Einstein

Thank you for your interest in the Rosicrucian Order AMORC and welcome to the Journey into Self. The fact that you are reading this book is a sign that you are a seeker, someone on a personal Quest. A journey of discovery that goes to the very essence of your being.

Who am I?

What is my purpose?

What can I accomplish in life?

How do I chart my own course in life?

Is there more to this wonderful universe than I see around me?

What is Self?

These are the great questions the brave and insightful have always sought answers to. Exactly what you are seeking, what you want to accomplish, what challenges you face or difficulties you want to conquer is, of course, only for you to judge.

But perhaps what you seek can be explained simply and generally as greater personal power, a more focused attunement with life, heightened spiritual awareness, and ultimately as the mystical experience of Cosmic Consciousness.

Rosicrucians call this Mastery of Life. It embraces all aspects of who you are and all you can be – physically, emotionally, intellectually and spiritually. It is the greatest journey a human being can take. Perhaps it is the only one he or she must take.

Can the Rosicrucian Order help you on that Quest? Can being a Rosicrucian student give you Mastery of Life?

The Journey into Self and the Mystical Path

The Lost Self

From childhood we begin hiding our inner self away. We learn to adapt and survive in the outside world. Our families and peers teach us socially acceptable behaviour. Our educational system teaches us the technical and social skills we need to sustain a material life. As adults we are thrust into a society geared towards materialism and maintaining the status quo.

Rarely, especially in the early formative years, are we taught inner development; with an emphasis on intuition, the subconscious mind, independent thinking, self esteem, self-confidence, psychic or inner spiritual growth. Is it any wonder the inner self becomes lost in the business of the outer world?

Yet despite all this the inner self does remain alive in everyone, and many are ready to heed its call. That is why the Rosicrucian Order is in existence today and has been for centuries, offering people a way to realise their own infinitely powerful and divine nature.

Life is Difficult

Life is a constant challenge of overcoming obstacles that stand in the way of creating a better family life, developing a successful career, securing material needs, maintaining one's health and even coping with death. This eternal struggle should not be cause for despair because it is through successfully overcoming challenges in life that you evolve.

The purpose of the Rosicrucian teachings is to learn how to find the answers within you. Inspiration, energy, and even specific answers to all challenges of life are available when one learns the proper techniques.

The Path of the Mystic

As a Rosicrucian student, you will be walking along the path of the mystic. It is a path travelled by a relative few at any one time. Yet, it is the path that has given us many of our greatest minds, enriching the world with their physical inventions, scientific discoveries, beautiful works of art, music and books, but most importantly, their personal approach to life.

And it is the path each must travel in their own time if they are to reach their ultimate personal evolution.

Mysticism Demystified

Just what is meant when we use the word 'mysticism'? A proper definition has always been elusive or vague. For the record, mysticism can be defined as an experience where one personally knows, through direct knowledge, the Source of all Being. Many call this source God; others, the Cosmic. The point is, the experience is noetic. We know, not believe through faith, or know only through scientific observation, but we simply and truly know.

The art of mysticism can be learned. The work of the Rosicrucian Order is to initiate you to the techniques where mystical knowledge can be readily attained. This knowledge when properly accessed is ultimately rational.

In the end mysticism isn't a belief. It is simply an art of knowing. The mystical experience transcends nature. Often the person will receive a feeling that far surpasses anything which could be conveyed by words. Furthermore, this insight, devoid of ego, is thoroughly comprehended as truthful. ■

The Rosicrucian Order is Unique

People joining the Rosicrucian Order come from all walks of life and nationalities.

Some already know a great deal about the main thrust of our curriculum, namely mysticism and spirituality in its broadest sense.

For others however, these topics are quite new and there is a great deal of catching up to do before they fully understand the potential that lies within them.

Regardless of experience and education particularly because the Rosicrucian wisdom is unique and cannot be found in any other disciplines, we find there is a need to so to speak “level the playing field” right from the start. For that reason we ask that you begin your studies with an entirely open mind and give us a chance to present both new and old concepts from a Rosicrucian point of view without being judged too harshly on the basis of your present acquired understanding. We acknowledge there will be some similarities with other disciplines, but there will also be many areas where the Rosicrucian approach is quite different from anything you may have encountered before. In these wholly Rosicrucian areas, we especially ask that you approach them with sincerity and a genuine desire to understand.

That does not mean abandoning prior beliefs, but it does mean that you may have to adapt your beliefs in the light of new knowledge. We expect you to respectfully listen to what we have to say, to accept what is logical and rational, and question what is not. If some aspects of our knowledge you simply cannot accept, we do not seek to force you to do so. You must however endeavour to be a “walking question mark” always..., seeking truth in its highest form in whatever way works best for you, in whatever form you can understand. We endeavour to give you a system of living that brings you lasting success, happiness and peace, and we firmly believe our system can work for you if you give it a chance. The only thing we really do require of you though is tolerance of the opinions of others, and patience with your own inner development.

Much of the material in the Rosicrucian teachings cannot be found anywhere else. Much of it goes back to the mystery schools of ancient Egypt and Europe. Yet it is not frozen. It has moved and is still moving with the times.

It is not the thoughts of a single teacher or group but the development of some of the greatest mystical minds through the ages. It is not a religion or dogma or even a single philosophy.

It is knowledge. Not knowledge in the sense of acquiring information (although you will), but knowledge in the sense of Knowing or wisdom.

Through our teachings you will gain specific knowledge of metaphysics, mysticism, philosophy, psychology, parapsychology and science not taught by conventional educational systems or traditional religions.

A Profound Wisdom Preserved

This profound wisdom, carefully preserved by mystery schools for centuries, is transmitted today through the Rosicrucian Order to every sincere person with an open mind and a positive motive. Its great power can be applied to the everyday affairs of your life with startling results.

Imagine having the ability to actualise your highest potential in all areas of life including family and social relationships, career, health, and personal development. Imagine developing greater creativity and discipline to overcome life's problems. Imagine setting a new course for your future; one that promises to be more in line with who you really are and more fulfilling than anything you've previously experienced!

If you already know much...

Perhaps you have already swum in the vast sea of metaphysical and self help books, programmes, lectures, seminars, movements. You already have much information and insight. But this approach is almost always incomplete because most books, seminars and study groups have a limited focus, such as personal prosperity, improving relationships, meditation, spiritual attunement, or developing psychic abilities.

The Rosicrucian system of study provides a foundation that ties together all different aspects of metaphysical study and demonstrates their inter-connectedness. You will understand the natural laws that govern all realms. You will understand Your Self.

...or a little

If you're completely new to this area of study, you'll find that this comprehensive approach makes your learning easy. As you progress step-by-step you'll see how each subject relates to the rest, giving you a sense of completeness and confidence.

This study of higher wisdom is designed to give you a complete knowledge plus a balanced and total personal development. To our knowledge, it is the only system that does this.

Whether you see your journey as one of personal development, or flowering of knowledge and accomplishment, or harnessing psychic ability, or of reaching the highest realms of spirituality and cosmic consciousness, the Rosicrucian Order's teachings are the keys to open the doors that will serve you.

The History of Rosicrucianism

The Rosicrucian Order, AMORC, is known internationally by its traditional and authentic title, the Ancient Mystical Order Rosae Crucis. Rosae Crucis from the Latin means “of the Rosy Cross”. There is no religious connotation associated with this symbol; the Rosy Cross symbol predates Christianity. The cross symbolically represents the human body and the rose represents the individual’s unfolding consciousness.

The lineage of the Rosicrucian movement can be traced from its beginnings in the mystery schools of ancient Egypt founded by Pharaoh Thutmose III (1500 to 1447 B.C), and more particularly from his grandson Pharaoh Amenhotep IV (also known as Akhnaton) – through to the Greek philosophers such as Thales and Pythagoras, the Roman philosopher Plotinus, and others like Parmenides, who journeyed to Egypt and were initiated into the mystery schools – through to the symbolism hidden in the love songs of Troubadours, the formularies of Alchemists, the symbolical system known as the Qabalah, and the rituals of Orders of Knighthood during the dark and dangerous times of medieval Europe.

Famous ‘Fama Fraternitatis’

In 17th century Germany, a mysterious publication called the Fama Fraternitatis written by ‘Christian Rosenkreuz’ was printed. This heralded a renewed interest in Rosicrucianism throughout Europe. As part of this great renewal, the renowned Sir Francis Bacon (1561–1626) English philosopher, essayist, and statesman, directed the Rosicrucian Order's activities both in England and Europe. Rosicrucian history states that Sir Francis Bacon was actually the author of the Fama Fraternitatis and other works that brought about the revival of the Order in Germany.

Throughout history a number of prominent persons in the fields of science and the arts have been associated with the Rosicrucian movement.

Jefferson, and Thomas Paine were intimately connected with the Rosicrucian community.

Throughout history there have been periods of greater and lesser activity of Rosicrucianism around the world. Inactive in the Americas during the 19th century, the Order was very active in France, Germany, Switzerland, Russia, Spain, and other lands during this time.

While Rosicrucianism is primarily a western phenomenon it is also eclectic and uniquely draws on the diverse mystical traditions of ancient Greece, China, India and Persia. Naturally enough, it also embraces the great explosion of human, scientific and philosophical knowledge of the 19th and 20th centuries.

AMORC Today

The present cycle of the Rosicrucian Order began in 1915 by Dr. H. Spencer Lewis, who received the authority from the Rosicrucian Order in worldwide. Its teachings are translated into 14 languages and its groups are found in over 450 cities. To serve this diverse population, the Order is divided into jurisdictions known as Grand Lodges each responsible for a specific language or region.

The Rosicrucian Order AMORC was officially started in Australia in 1930 and later joined by New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong and the Philippines under auspices of the English-speaking Grand Lodge based in California. In 1996 the Grand Lodge for Australia, Asia and New Zealand was formed. It is a non-profit tax-exempt organisation with its own president and four other directors. R

Developing Your Highest Potential

A goal of the Rosicrucian Order has been to develop a system of study for those who walk upon the path, enabling them to achieve their highest potential on all levels of being: the physical, mental, psychic and spiritual. It is in this attainment that one secures the deepest and most all-embracing sense of peace and harmony with self and all of creation.

We shall not cease from exploration, and the end of all our exploration
 will be to arrive where we started,
 and know the place for the first time.

T.S. Eliot

How the System of Study Works

Each month, you'll receive a packet of weekly lessons, called monographs, to read in the privacy of your own home.

The lessons, about six to eight pages each, introduce certain ideas and experiments in a straightforward and simple manner.

We ask that you devote about one and a half hours once a week to study that week's lesson and perform any exercise or experiment given. For the remainder of the week we encourage you to periodically think about the important ideas contained in that lesson and to repeat the exercises. We ask you for this simple commitment because the lessons are not just a body of knowledge, but a way of life. If you only read them and don't attempt the experiments or practice the techniques, then you're only learning theory, just as you would be if you only read a book on how to play the piano, but never practised playing one.

It takes a special sort of dedication to quest for the knowledge of the universe. It's essential that you test the ideas and experiments to prove their validity to yourself. You will quickly discover that we do not insist or even ask you to believe anything in the studies. Only you can judge their validity by putting them to the test. And only you can decide whether or not to accept them into your life.

How the Information is Structured

New students begin with a series of three introductory degrees comprising an overview of the Rosicrucian course of study. This is followed by twelve additional degrees, each having its own particular emphasis. The teachings are continuously updated to reflect our modern world, while keeping true to the traditions of the Order.

Underlying it all is a code of natural law which forms the core of the Rosicrucian teachings and which remains constant over time.

The Rosicrucian system does not promise instant enlightenment: it is a system of gentle unfoldment. In the first four or five years you will be given the necessary knowledge and techniques that will enable you to achieve a high level of mastery of life. However, the teachings continue past this point bringing greater depth and advancement towards illumination.

The uniqueness of the Rosicrucian teachings doesn't come simply from the body of knowledge it offers, but also from the way in which it is organised and brought to life through practical exercises and experiments to produce a genuine evolution in consciousness. Each degree covers an important step you need in order to benefit from the following degree. Each exercise supports, reinforces, and builds upon the preceding exercises and techniques, leading to balanced, full development. ■

Initiation and Fraternity The Initiatic Tradition

As a member, you are not just taking a course of study. You are passing through Degrees of study, rituals, ceremonies, exercises, and demonstrations that have a long historical background.

Rosicrucian initiations are fraternal rituals designed to mark the milestones of a student's progress on the mystical path. In these beautiful rituals, mystical laws and principles are demonstrated in a dramatic form, to both inform and inspire you. Almost all of the Degrees of Rosicrucian study is preceded by an initiation ceremony that can easily be performed during home study. You also have the option of receiving these initiations in a more elaborate form in the Order's affiliated Lodges. You'll find these initiations, when conferred in the Temple of a Rosicrucian Lodge, are even more impressive to the psyche.

The origin of initiation is as old as the earliest civilisations. In ancient times, the word mystery did not mean "strange" or "weird". Rather, it referred to a unique gnosis ~ knowledge which was to be revealed to the candidate for initiation. In fact, in ancient Rome the mysteries were called initia. The initiates were called mystae. The Latin word initiare meant "to inspire".

No rite or ceremony is a true initiation if it does not do the following; (a) cause you to engage in introspection, that is, turn your consciousness within, to look upon yourself; (b) engender within you a feeling of aspiration and idealism; and (c) exact from you a sacred obligation or promise which you make to yourself that you will try to fulfil your aspirations. The purpose of Rosicrucian initiation is for the same traditional and psychological reasons.

Participation in initiation rituals does not, in itself, make you a true initiate, and Rosicrucian students are not required to participate in rituals. You become a Rosicrucian initiate only through your own efforts, merits, and preparation. However, it is possible to accelerate this inner preparation and this is the purpose of Rosicrucian initiations.

Fraternal Affiliation

The Rosicrucian Order, AMORC, is a fraternal organisation that maintains a system of local Rosicrucian groups. You have the option and privilege of attending a Lodge, Chapter or Pronaos if there is one in your area.

Here you can enjoy the company of fellow Rosicrucians, hear inspiring lectures, engage in mystical experiments and participate in beautiful ceremonies. You'll also have the opportunity to attend a variety of special events, seminars, and conventions. No Rosicrucian member is obligated to associate with a local Rosicrucian group, but it is highly recommended as a unique opportunity to enrich your membership experience.

Other Benefits of Membership
